WEBSITE REFERENCE / FOUNDATION

THE BOOKITO DESIGN SYSTEM

A foundation for every next chapter.

A measured reference to the existing bookstore: its palette, literary typography, spatial rhythm and reusable interface patterns.

EXTRACTED, NOT REIMAGINED

Observed values and source-faithful specimens. No new interaction states. No changes to the website.

01 Color — paper, ink & sky

Five core colors define the BOOKITO identity. Supporting UI values remain distinct and unchanged.

CORE PALETTE / 5 COLORS

Primary / Ink Blue	Secondary / Archive Blue	Accent / Sky Blue	Canvas / Ivory	Surface / White
#355872	#7AAACE	#9CD5FF	#F7F8F0	#FFFFFF
Headings, primary actions	Editorial accents, metadata	Highlights, count badges	Page background	Cards and input surfaces

SUPPLEMENTARY / EXISTING UI VALUES

These colors are already present in the website. They are not additions to the five-color core palette and should not be substituted with approximations of the core blues or ivory.

Body text	Muted text	UI border	Section surface	Soft surface	Secondary hero fill	Checkout border
#495C69	#6B8292	#DCE5E8	#F2F5EE	#EDF1EA	#E8EDE7	#6B7280

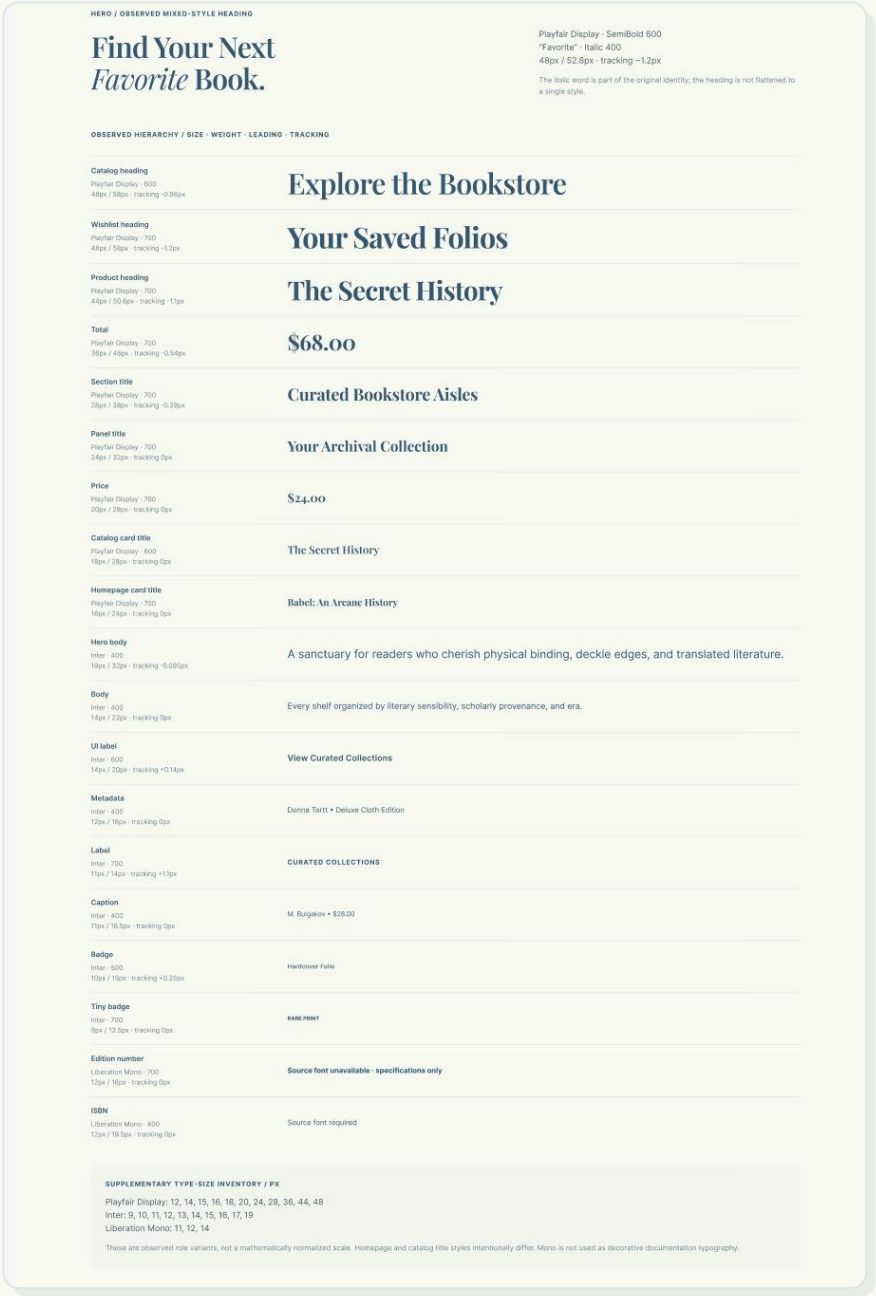

Component-specific values are preserved in copied specimens, including opacity, imagery and status details. Checkout field text is #18222A; rating and format colors remain local to their source patterns.

02

DESIGN SYSTEM

Typography

Observed type hierarchy: sizes, weights, leading and tracking across headings, body, labels and badges.

03

DESIGN SYSTEM

Space, Shape & Elevation

Spatial rhythm, corner radii and elevation values used across the interface.

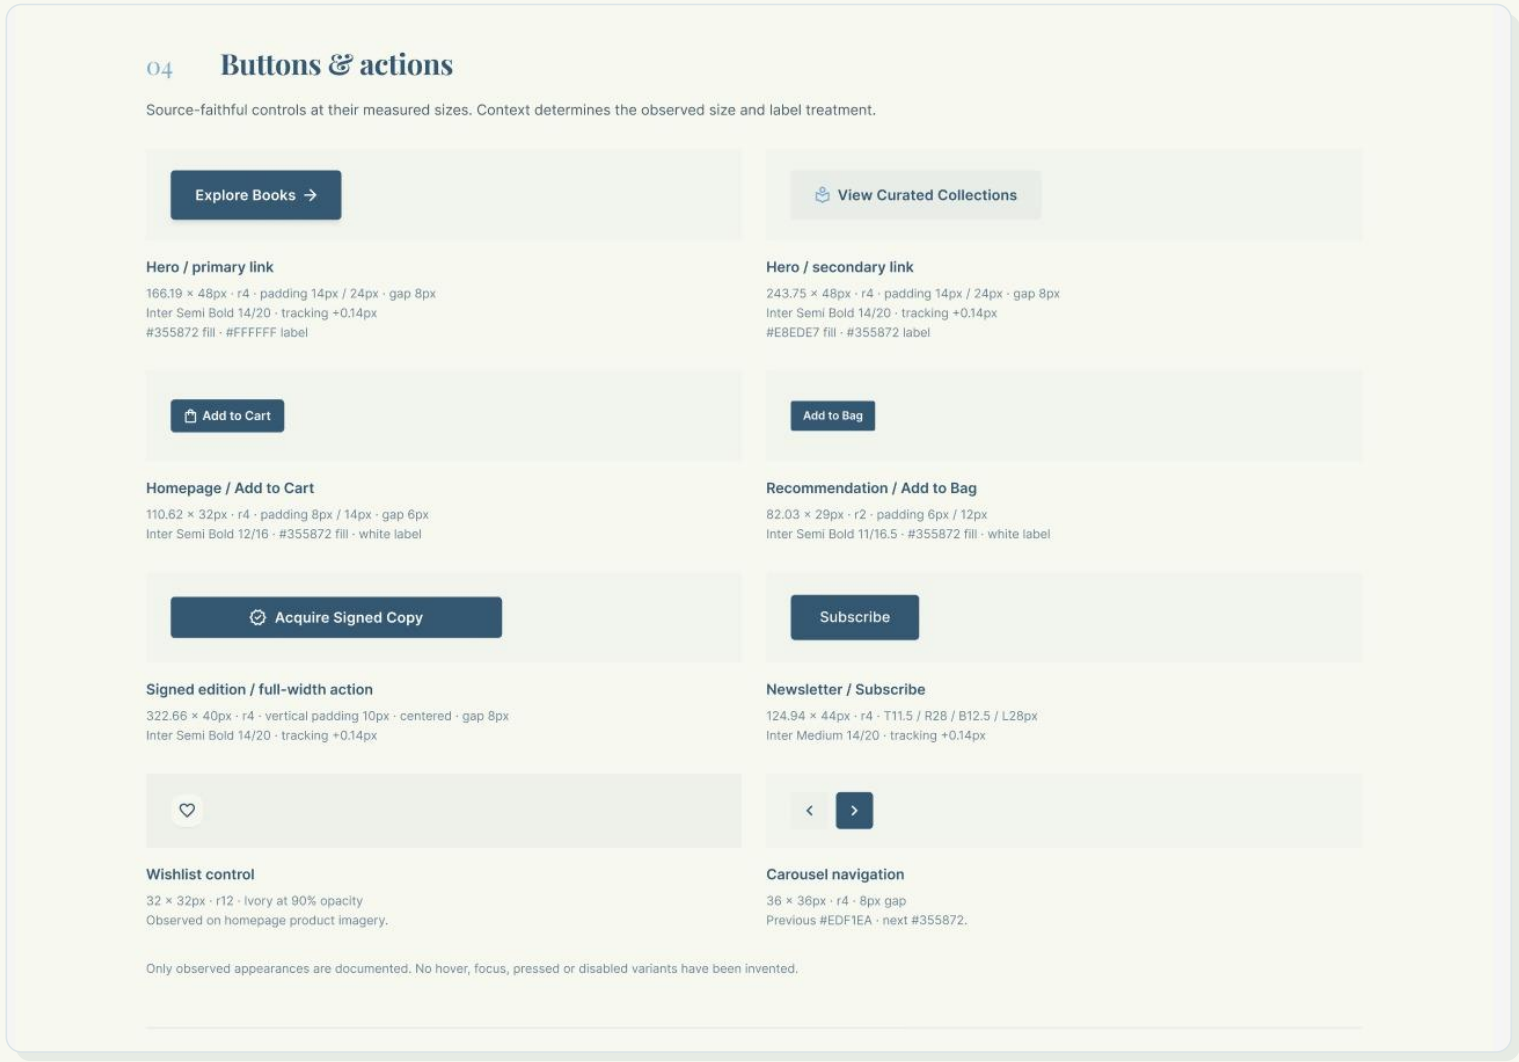

04

DESIGN SYSTEM

Buttons & Actions

Primary, secondary and utility button specimens as they appear in the website.

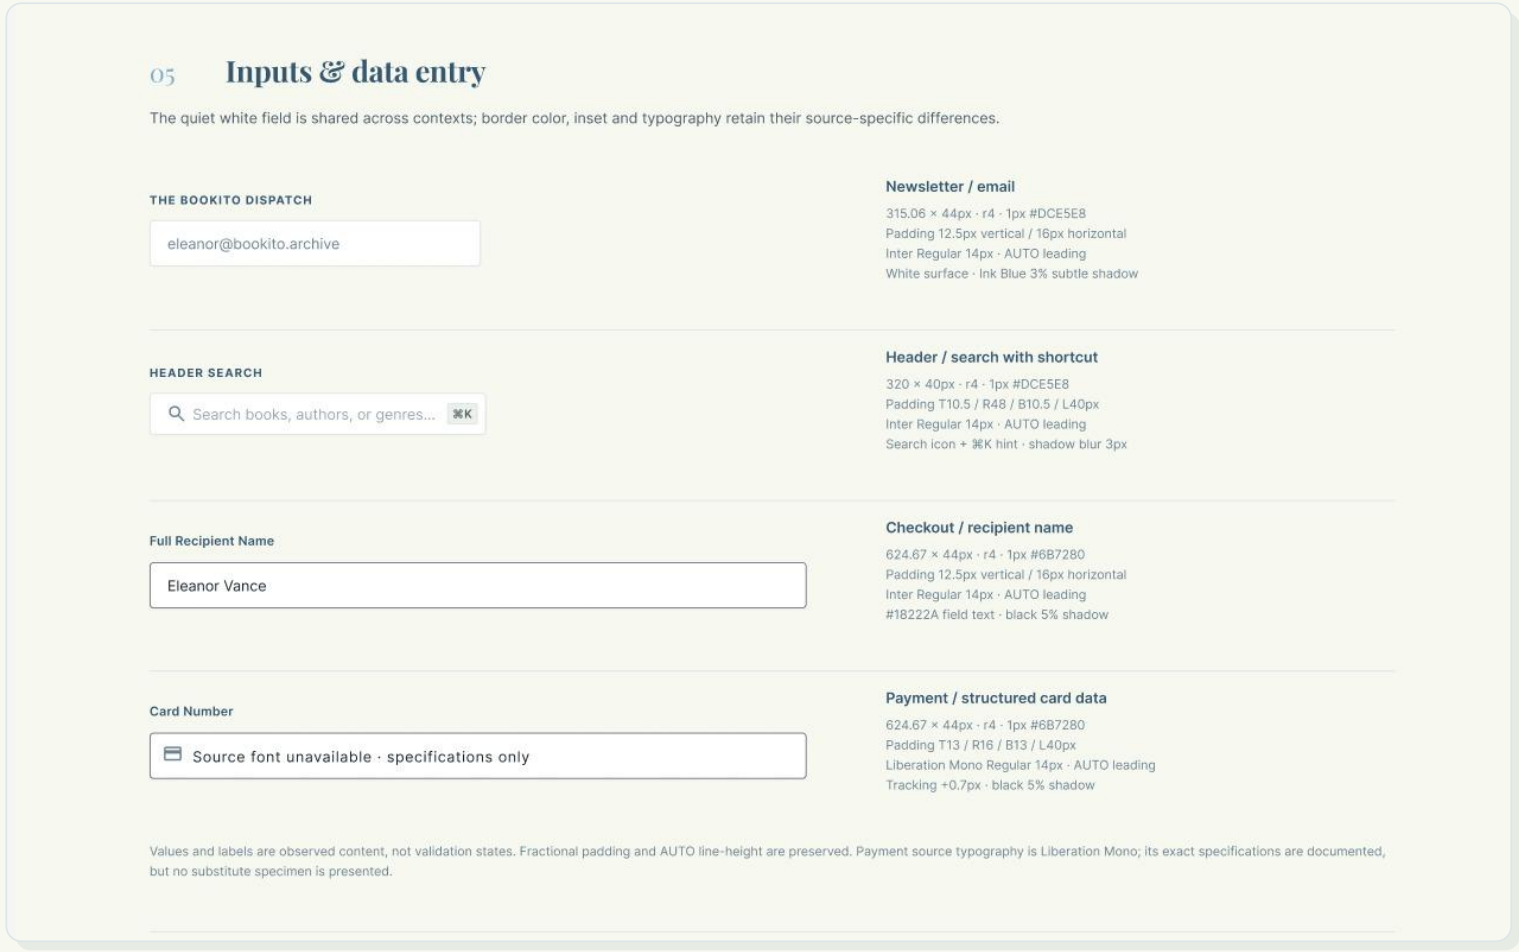

05

DESIGN SYSTEM

Inputs & Data Entry

Text fields, search and structured data-entry specimens used in forms and checkout.

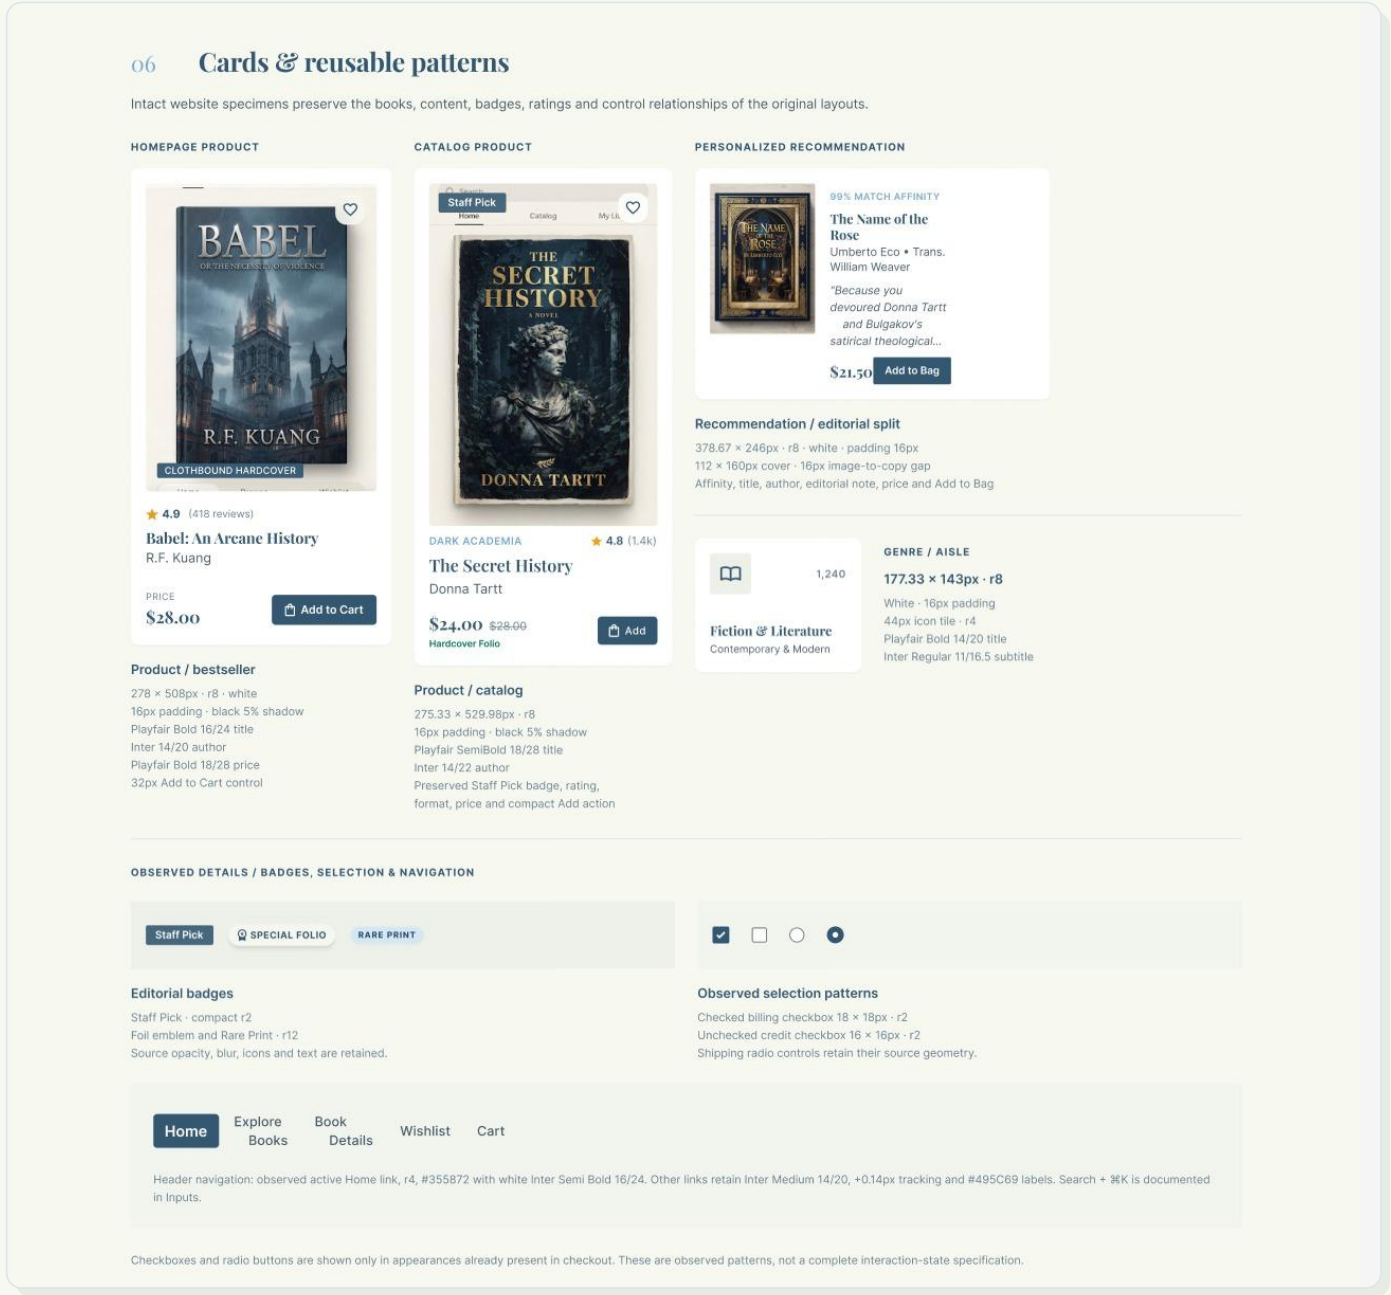

06

DESIGN SYSTEM

Cards & Reusable Patterns

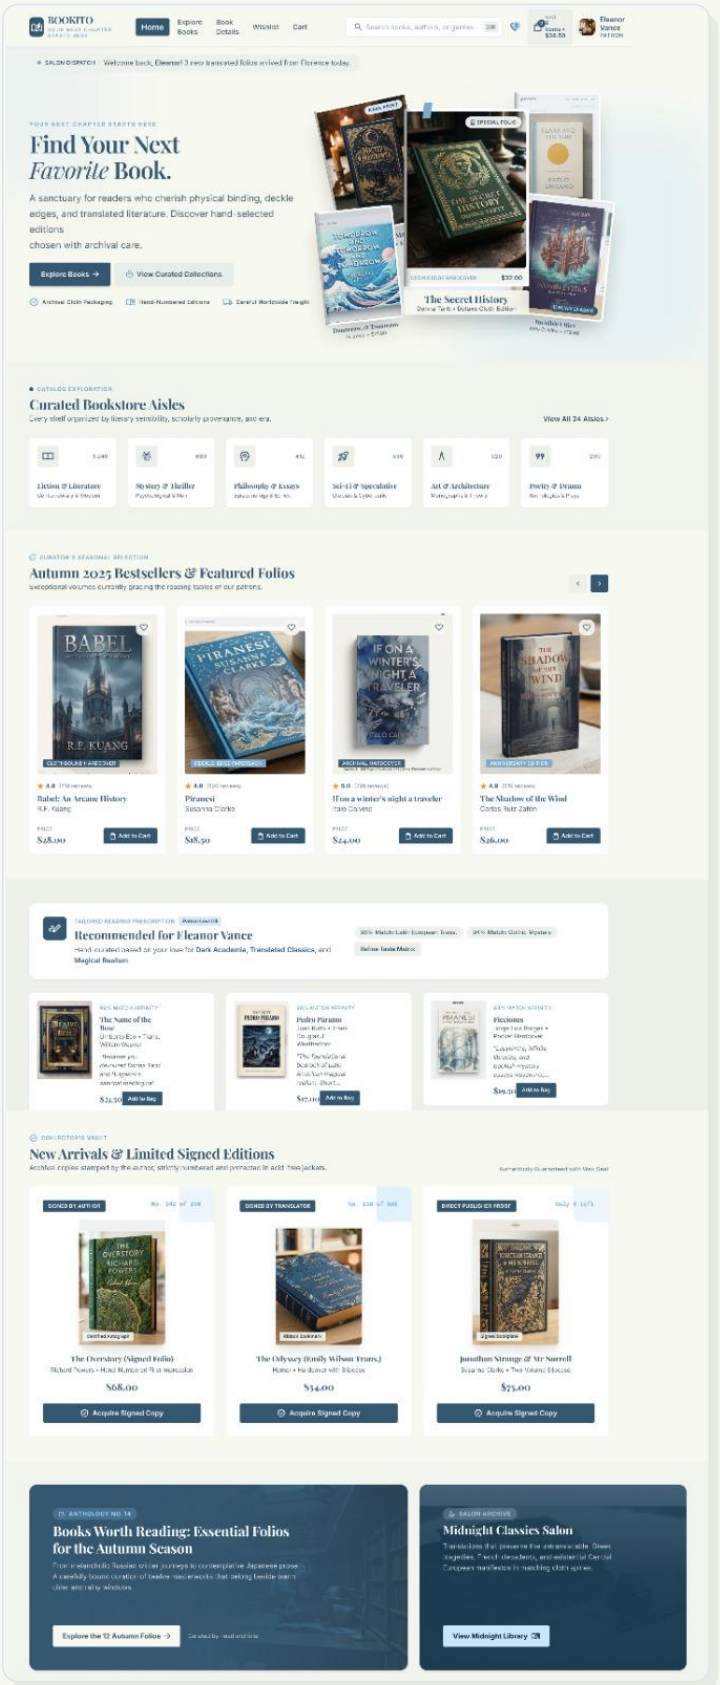

Reusable card and component patterns taken from the existing bookstore screens.
